6.29.07 Retirement of George Eiche

June 29, 2007- A luncheon was held to honor George “Popeye” Eiche who retired on June 29, 2006. George started his career with the Authority in September 1990 as a Mechanic Welder at the Central Division before transferring to the Southern Division in July 2001. George has made many friends while working at the Authority and will be deeply missed by his coworkers. We would like to acknowledge George for his dedication and congratulate him on almost seventeen years of distinguished service to the Authority.
