

Salvatore “Sal” Calabrese retired on December 1, 2007 after eighteen years of service to the Ocean County Utilities Authority. Sal joined the Authority in September of 1989 at the Northern Division and served as a Mechanic until his recent retirement.

We would like to acknowledge Sal for his dedication and recognize him on his eighteen years of service to our Authority and our County. His many co-workers, friends and acquaintances wish him the very best of health and happiness in the years ahead.

