October 26, 2007 – A brunch was held in the auditorium of the Central Water Pollution Control Facility to honor Thomas “Tom” Cross who retired from the Ocean County Utilities Authority on November 1, 2007. Employed by the Authority since November 1980, Tom became the first Operator of the newly constructed Septage Receiving Facility, in September of 1982, a position he held until his retirement.

Throughout his twenty-seven years of dedicated service to the Authority, Tom performed his duties in an outstanding manner. His many co-workers, friends and acquaintances congratulate him on his distinguished service to the Ocean County Utilities Authority and wish him the very best of health and happiness in the years ahead.
